

Hero of Israel

(Surely a King)

Words and Music by: Anthony Lancaster
Arr: Mike Rogers and Anthony Lancaster

1

1. Sure - ly a king would know his best should be worn, clothed that his
 2. Sure - ly a king in lav - ish gran - deur would live placed on a
 3. Sure - ly a king would close His heart to a foe, bear arms a -
 4. Sure - ly a cross would sig - nal help - less de - feat. Christ, King re - peo - ple might re - ceive (him) him well. Yet low, wrapped in suf - fer - ing is high and awe - some throne (to) to dwell. But here, not a place to lay His gainst them with his name (up) up - held. But arms, nailed and o - pen, left the ject - ed, lift - ed high, (You) You fell. But all at the cross - 's foot now

6

11

v.4 jump to $\oplus$ 1. 2, 3.

this one a - dorned as the he - ro, he - ro of Is - ra - el.
 head would we give to the he - ro, he - ro of Is - ra - el.
 full heart ex - posed in the he - ro, he - ro of Is - ra - el.
 fall at the feet of the he - ro, he - ro of Is - ra - el.

18

These wear - y heav - y lad - en are Your mis - fit king - dom.
 These wear - y heav - y lad - en, Your mis - fits, Your king - dom.
 These wear - y are Your king - dom.

22

No strength in vir - tue do we bring; we need Your Spir - it in us;
 No strength in our vir - tue, bring.

No strength we bring.

26

but we make straight the way for for You to bear our shame in a
 but we make straight the way for for You to bear our shame in a

We make You bear our shame in a 30

rit.

1st x - to v.3
2nd x - to v.4

hum - ble cor - o - na - tion as our King.

34

⓪ CODA

rit.

el. You're the he - ro, he - ro of Is - ra - el.